

Restaurant on the first line of the port in Ibiza

REF. :22081832

Description

Mediterranean restaurant located in the heart of the marina of Santa Eulalia, Ibiza, in one of the most charming areas, in front of the moorings for fishing and recreational boats, completely ready to start its activity. The establishment has a modern and fully equipped kitchen, designed to operate smoothly with up to three chefs simultaneously. There is also an elegant wooden bar, ideal for the maître d' to manage reservations and co-ordinate the team of waiters and cooks while drinks are being served. The interior can seat approximately five tables, while the outdoor terrace can accommodate up to 20 tables on the first level and an additional five on the second level, allowing for 80 to 100 diners. The venue includes a bathroom, piped music and television screens, making it ideal for private events, both for family and friends. This restaurant, with a long tradition in Santa Eulalia, is perfect both for enjoying its busy and lively days, as well as for quieter and more romantic evenings overlooking the sea and the moonlight. It is undoubtedly one of the most pleasant and...
